Court's Response:

The law allows the jury to hear testimony of a witness in its entirety (including direct, cross, redirect, recross) or not at all. Given that Dr. Olsen's testimony was several hours long, do you still wish to hear his testimony? If so, you will return to the Courtroom and the Court Reporter will read back all of Dr. Olsen's testimony. It may take the Court Reporter several hours to prepare to read back that testimony.
